Drawing from a Deeper Well with Anne Simmonds is a monthly, Monday-morning spiritual support group which offers a guided opportunity to explore relevant themes and spiritual practices to enhance our professional and personal lives. Gathering from 9:45—12:15 at Emmanuel College from September 26 to June 5.

Drawing from a Deeper Well Retreat Series at Five Oaks with Anne Simmonds is a day-long opportunity to explore spiritual practices on September 19, October 17 & November 14.

End of Life Choices is a workshop to explore and discuss new options in end-of-life care. Tuesday, October 25 from 9:30 a.m.—3:30 p.m. at Trinity United Church in Cobourg and co-sponsored by Emmanuel College.

Parish Nursing is offered by Inter-Church Health Ministries in partnership with Emmanuel College. The program takes place at Emmanuel College over four full Saturdays on October 15, 22, 29 and November 5, 2016. Registration for either version is through www.ichm.ca/.

The Toronto Festival of Preaching takes place at Yorkminster Park Baptist Church in Toronto from October 23-25, 2016 with an exciting array of workshops. Keynote presenters are Marvin McMickle, Carolyn Lewis, Mark Buchannan, Steve Bell and Sister Sue Mosteller. Details at www.lesterrandall.com. Check out presentations from earlier years on Youtube.

Jumpstart your Creative Spirit: Join artist and teacher, Barbara Muir, in exploring the sources and expressions of creativity in our lives and work in this four-part series. November 7, 14, 21 and 28, 2016 from 10:00-1:00 p.m. at Emmanuel College.

Loving the World: Eco-Economic Shake-up! with Cynthia Moe-Lobeda is offered at Emmanuel College October 28-29, 2016. Co-sponsored by Ruah: An Eco-Centred Faith Community and Emmanuel College. Registration and more information at www.ruahtoronto.org.

Courage to Lead® Seasonal Retreats gathers a group five times between October 2016 and November 2017 with Mardi Tindal and Fred Montieth. The process is rooted in the belief that effective ministry and leadership flow from the identity and integrity of the person, and focuses on how we listen to ourselves and to each other in communal spaces that invite the voice of the soul to be heard

Godly Play Introductory Workshop on November 12 from 10:00-3:00 at Emmanuel College is an opportunity to learn about and experience Godly Play and the ways in which it can lead and support children's exploration of faith through story and conversation. A full Godly Play 3-part Commuter Series is offered January-March, 2017.

Holy Currencies for Congregational Vitality is a new opportunity for congregational teams or individuals to work with Eric Law over a year (January—June, 2017) to learn about and experiment with the six holy currencies, which need to flow in order for congregations to meet and maintain their missional potential.

Resilience in Ministry with Morar Murray-Hayes is a workshop offered at Maple Grove United Church in Oakville on January 30 and 31, 2017 with a follow-up Webinar on March 28. Morar will help participants explore how principles from complexity science and other systems theories can be helpful in navigating long term ministry.

Godly Play Core Training with Maya Landell and Amy Crawford is offered on January 28, February 25 and March 25 at Islington United Church. This series of Godly Play Commuter trainings is designed to allow you to experience and tell Godly play stories and learn how to set up and manage a Godly Play space and session.

Join Abigail Johnson in exploring A Spirituality of Depression on February and March 6 from 10:00-4:00 at Emmanuel College. Mental health is coming out of the closet. Yet beyond saying, "I have a mental illness," what else can we do? In this workshop we will explore the mental illness of depression through spirituality and art.

Faithful Living: A Day to Explore Life Choices on March 15, 2017 from 10:00-8:00 is an opportunity for youth, young adults and their leaders to spend a day at Emmanuel College and the U of T campus exploring where God may be at work in your life. Co-Sponsored by ECUT and Ministry Recruitment, United Church of Canada.

Naming and Confronting the Subtle Violence of Everyday Church Work is a day-long workshop with Lee McKenna on Friday, April 28, 2017 at Emmanuel College. Through the use of story-telling, case studies, role play and play-based learning, participants will learn how to contribute to thriving places of ministry through recognition of their own use of subtle violence and the capacity to name that of others.

Pastoral Counselling Education - will help you develop theoretical knowledge and clinical skills in Pastoral Counselling and Marriage and Family Therapy. It includes theory sessions, as well as practice therapy and case conference groups. TST course TSP3521YY, Mondays, 9:00-4:00
Contact: Lawrence A. Beech Ph.D. lawrence.beech@sympatico.ca, 416-494-7302

Applied Buddhist Studies Initiative

This Conference on Applied Buddhism: Past and Present, October 14-15, explores two current streams of Applied Buddhism, one in Buddhist countries that have responded to changes, challenges, and needs that have arisen in their homelands, and the other in traditionally non-Buddhist countries that have explored contemporary Buddhist applications to address current issues or to meet various social needs.

On the same weekend you can register for Sustainable Compassion Training Workshop October 16, 2016 (Sunday) at Emmanuel College, conducted by Dr. John Makransky, PhD, Associate Professor, Buddhism and Comparative Theology, Boston College, USA.

Muslim Studies Courses

Introduction to Islam with Laury Silvers is series of six courses introducing the history, practice, faith, and ethics of Islam on Monday nights from 6:30-8:30 p.m., starting on September 12. You can register for each series or the whole year.

On Saturday February 11, 2017 prepare for Valentine's Day with a Workshop on Sufism and Love led by Dr. Laury Silvers

Emmanuel's Sabbatical Program

The Continuing Education program at Emmanuel College includes a flexible Sabbatical or Study Leave program. Ranging from one week to a term, this program allows you to audit classes, participate in the worship and community life of the college, use the library and meet with a faculty member to discuss topics related to your sabbatic study/leave focus. More information on Emmanuel's website.

Donations to Emmanuel's Con Ed Program

We welcome donations to support our Con Ed Program. Donations help to keep registration fees as low as possible and to ensure programs are accessible for students. To make a tax deductible donation go to <http://my.alumni.utoronto.ca/>. Thank you.
