Parables, Prayers, and Promises

Who was Jesus of Nazareth? What did he teach, and how did he pray? How does Jesus' ministry continue through his followers today? This Lent, get to know Jesus more intimately—and share and live out the good news. Daily devotions covering Ash Wednesday to Easter offer reflections on scripture; honest, relevant anecdotes; prayers; and links to videos, poetry, and song. Includes an illustrated study guide by Trisha Elliott, for groups or individuals.

Minutes for Mission 2017: We Sing Thanksgiving

New music video and expanded video selection

You asked—and we answered! Minutes for Mission 2017 includes 29 videos to accompany Minutes for Mission throughout the year, along with a bonus track—"Perfect Little Thing," by Karla Adolphe, a member of High River United Church. The message we hear in Karla's love song is to dare to be loving and joyful and to know that we are loved as God's own.

A DVD was mailed with the Minutes for Mission booklet to all pastoral charges in December. The videos can also be viewed or downloaded at www.youtube.com/unitedchurchofcanada.

Questioning Worship

Engaging All God's Peoples

Because worship is for all people, and because we all belong to different cultural communities, worship is intercultural. Questioning Worship is full of ideas, questions, and exercises designed to help local groups talk about intercultural worship together. To get a taste, search united-church.ca for a sample chapter; order the full resource from UCRDstore.ca.

Gathering Pentecost 1

Issue Theme: Taking Your Worship to the Next Level

Why do we worship? Do we focus on adoring and praising God? On teaching about the Christian life? Or both, or something else? Is our worship vital, vibrant, capturing the heart and the imagination? Is there depth or, as the apostle Paul would say, "meat to chew on"? Has the spirit and Spirit moved?
